2. OUR SERVICES AND ROLE

The Company designs, arranges and coordinates the Journey and supports the Travellers. [Lawyer to confirm role: The Company acts as an agent arranging services provided by independent Suppliers / The Company acts as principal for package components]. The services themselves are provided by the Suppliers under their own terms.

3. PRICE AND FEES

The total price and any planning or service fee are set out in the accepted Proposal. Prices are quoted in [currency]. Supplier prices may change before booking; once the Company confirms a booking in writing and payment is verified, the confirmed price is fixed, except for surcharges that Suppliers are allowed to apply under their terms, which the Company will pass on with notice.

4. PAYMENT

1. Schedule. A deposit of [%] is due within [number] days of signing. The balance is due [number] days before departure. For journeys departing within [number] days of booking, full payment is due on booking.
2. Official channel only. Payment is made only through the official payments page of the Company's website, using the asset and network shown on the invoice. The Company's consultants do not collect payments, and the Company never sends wallet addresses by email, message or document. The Client must verify the address against the official payments page before sending.
3. Cryptocurrency. Each invoice states the amount, asset, network and the exchange rate used, and how long that rate is held. Network fees are paid by the Client. Cryptocurrency transfers cannot be reversed. A payment is treated as received only when the Company has verified it against the blockchain and issued a receipt. The Client is responsible for sending the correct amount, asset and network; the Company is not responsible for funds sent to a wrong address or network.
4. Underpayment and late payment. If the verified amount is less than the invoice, the Company will notify the Client and the shortfall must be paid by the due date. If a payment is late, the Company may re-price the Journey, cancel unpaid bookings and apply the cancellation terms below.

5. BOOKING AND CONFIRMATION

The Company books Suppliers only after payment has been verified. Bookings are confirmed when the Company sends written supplier confirmations. The Company does not guarantee availability before then.

6. CLIENT INFORMATION AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Client must give accurate information, including names exactly as shown on passports. The Client and every Traveller are responsible for valid passports, visas, entry and health requirements, check-in times and following Supplier and local rules. Errors in names or details may incur Supplier charges for which the Client is responsible. The Company will give guidance on entry requirements but is not a substitute for official sources.

7. CHANGES BY THE CLIENT

Requests to change the Journey must be made in writing using the Change or Cancellation Request Form. The Company will send a written cost statement showing Supplier charges and its own fee of [amount or %]. A change is made only after the Client confirms the cost statement in writing. Some bookings cannot be changed.

8. CANCELLATION BY THE CLIENT

Cancellations must be requested in writing. The Client is responsible for all Supplier cancellation charges plus the Company's fee. Unless Supplier terms are stricter (in which case those apply), the Company's cancellation charges are:

Time before departure	Charge to the Client

[61 to 90 days]	[% of total]

The Company is not liable for events outside its reasonable control (for example severe weather, strikes, government action, pandemics, airspace or border closures), except to pass on any refund or credit it receives.

10. REFUNDS

Approved refunds are issued by the Company within [number] business days of receiving the funds back from Suppliers, or of the Company's own approval, using the same method as the original payment where possible. For cryptocurrency, refunds are paid in the same asset and network to an address the Client confirms through a secure channel, [lawyer to confirm: at the amount in the original asset / at the value on the original invoice date] . The Company will issue a Refund Statement showing every deduction.

11. TRAVEL INSURANCE

The Company strongly recommends comprehensive travel insurance covering cancellation, interruption, emergency medical care, evacuation and baggage. Insurance is arranged by the Client directly with an insurer and is not included in the Journey price. The Company does not sell insurance.
