

Supplier Terms Acknowledgement

Confirmation that supplier conditions have been shared and understood

Your Journey is provided by independent suppliers (airlines, hotels, cruise lines, tour operators and others). Each supplier has its own terms, which can include non-refundable payments, name-change fees, strict cancellation windows and baggage and check-in rules. These terms apply in addition to the Client Services Agreement and, where stricter, take priority over the Company's own cancellation schedule.

I ACKNOWLEDGE

- ☐ I have been given access to the supplier terms listed above and have read the key restrictions.
- ☐ Some bookings may be non-refundable or non-changeable once made, including after only a deposit has been paid.
- ☐ Supplier deadlines (for example name changes, final payment, check-in and baggage rules) are my responsibility to meet, and the Company will remind me of the main dates.
- ☐ If a supplier changes or cancels, the Company will pass on any refund or credit it actually receives, as set out in my agreement.
