

Consent and Privacy Notice

How we use your information, and your consent

This notice explains how [WBM legal entity name] (trading as World Bridge Meridian) ("we") uses your personal information to arrange your journey. [Lawyer to adapt to the privacy laws of the countries where you operate, such as GDPR, UK GDPR, CCPA, PIPEDA.]

WHAT WE COLLECT

- Contact details, names and dates of birth as shown on your passport.
- Passport and nationality details, frequent flyer numbers and emergency contact.
- Special requirements you choose to give us (for example accessibility or dietary needs).
- Payment references (for example transaction hashes), but never private keys, seed phrases or exchange logins.

WHY WE USE IT

To prepare, book and manage your journey and to support you while you travel; to meet legal duties (such as sanctions checks and accounting); and, only if you agree below, to send you travel ideas.

WHO RECEIVES IT

Only the suppliers and authorities needed for your journey: airlines, hotels, cruise lines, tour operators, transfer companies, border and security authorities as required, and service providers who help us operate (for example secure storage and e-signature). These recipients may be in other countries. [Describe safeguards for international transfers.]

HOW LONG WE KEEP IT

Passport and identity details are deleted within [number] days after your journey ends unless the law requires us to keep them. Booking, invoice and payment records are kept for [number] years for accounting and legal reasons. [Confirm retention periods with counsel and your accountant.]

YOUR RIGHTS

Depending on where you live, you can ask to see, correct or delete your information, object to certain uses or withdraw consent. Contact info@worldbridgemeridian.group. You can also contact your local data-protection authority.
